Why choose Hadlow Primary School?

- Our staff show genuine love, care and warmth to all pupils and families
- Our 'behaviour blueprint' is bespoke to our school focusing on positive relationships and nurture for all pupils
 - We aim to develop the whole child in a holistic approach to learning
- Mental wellbeing and physical fitness is embedded into our culture and curriculum; children engage in the daily mile, peer massage, yoga and many other activities
- Our classrooms are large, calm, welcoming spaces fully equipped for learning
- We have a HUGE outdoor area, including an allotment which has been rated OUTSTANDING by the Royal Horticultural Society
- Our open-minded and curious children love learning and develop a can-do attitude which enables them to flourish and excel in a variety of secondary schools and the real life world.
